Carley Bill Wins Jim Page Memorial Scholarship

BARABOO, WIS. – Carley Bill, daughter of Blaine and Wendy Bill (Wendy is a human resources coordinator at Foremost Farms USA in Baraboo), of Reedsburg, is one of the 2015 recipients of the American Dairy Products Institute’s (ADPI) Jim Page Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $2,000.

Carley will be a junior next fall studying clinical laboratory science at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, La Crosse, Wis. She is also a part time human resources associate at Foremost Farms’ corporate headquarters in Baraboo. Bill is a graduate of Reedsburg Area High School.

Bill has maintained 3.83 GPA while working two jobs and playing hockey and summer recreation softball. She also volunteers for the Salvation Army. Carley is also one of ten recipients of the Cow-lege Cash[®] scholarship, a $2,000 award for the sons and daughters of Foremost Farms’ employees.

The Jim Page Memorial Scholarship is awarded to the dependent of an employee or to an employee of an ADPI member. Scholarship applicants must be in good academic standing at a nationally accredited college or university, pursuing a course of study that will lead to a bachelor’s degree, have completed at least one full semester and maintain a GPA of at least 3.0 using the standard 4.0 scale. The Jim Page Memorial Scholarship was created in memory of James J. Page who served ADPI as CEO from 2002 to 2008. Page enjoyed a distinguished marketing career in the dairy industry. ADPI is the leading national trade association representing manufacturers and marketers of dairy-based ingredients.

Foremost Farms USA (www.foremostfarms.com), headquartered in Baraboo, Wis., is a farmer-owned milk processing and marketing cooperative with annual sales of $2 billion. The nation’s sixth-largest cooperative and number 25 in annual sales among the Top 100 U.S. dairy processors, Foremost Farms is a leading manufacturer and marketer of cheese, specialty whey ingredients, butter and bulk fluid milk to customers around the world.
